

Harvard Fox Hounds

Fall Hunter Pace

Flint Creek Farm

November 19, 2022

What is a Hunter Pace?

A hunter pace is ridden in teams of 2, 3 or 4 at your own comfortable pace. The objective is for your team's time to match a random unknown Mystery Time. This is a user-friendly competition where no skill is required – it's designed to enjoy a pleasant day mounted on your favorite horse riding over stunning terrain with friends.

Entry fees go directly to the "HFH Kennel Fund."

Clearly marked trails wind their way up and down the foothills of the Ozarks and across the crystal-clear Flint Creek. Jumps between 18" and 3' are optional for those wishing to school them. Treat yourself and your horse to a special day in HFH hunt country as the Fall foliage begins to turn and temperatures start to cool.

Do you need to join up with a team? Just let us know. First team will ride out at 10:00 A.M. Prizes and ribbons are awarded First thru Sixth Place. Placings announced during lunch, and you must be present to win!

What to Wear

Casual riding attire is the norm.

Protective head gear is required by insurance carrier. Western riders are welcomed, but must wear a helmet

Directions

Flint Creek Farm is located off HW 412 approximately 10 miles west of the AR border. From Tulsa, go east on HW 412 to the Cherokee Turnpike. When the turnpike ends, immediately get into the left lane and take the first left on the paved road by the water slide. If you pass over Flint Creek, you've gone too far. Follow the paved road for 1.8 miles; then turn right onto CR 558. Go 1 mile to the farm entrance gate (green pipe fence) on the right.
